INVESTIGATING THE COMETS

One of the greatest aviation mysteries in recent times—the strange crashes of the British jet transport Comets—is well on the way to being solved. And the earnestness and thoroughness with which it has been probed ought to be a comfort to airline passengers all over the world.

Naturally the British have a selfish purpose. The future of their commercial jet aviation, so well advanced originally by the pioneering Comet, is now in jeopardy. But that should not detract from their achievement in threading through this complex mystery.

Several separate British agencies collaborated in what was truly a monumental investigation. Their work was often highly dramatic, and dangerous.

Ships of the Royal Navy scoured the sea bottom off the tiny Mediterranean island of Elba, bringing back three fourths of the wreckage of the Comet that fell last January. Tiny strips of metal, twisted seats, ball bearings, all these shattered parts were fitted onto a wooden ghost aircraft frame in England.

This patchwork ship was then immersed in thousands of gallons of water. More water was pumped inside the fuselage to simulate the air pressure the plane would feel at all stages of a flight. Trick devices were rigged to imitate the buffeting winds.

Then groups of scientists almost daily flew in still-intact Comets, measuring stress and pressure with all kinds of electrical gadgets. Since these were the craft that had mysteriously crashed, the men took their lives in their hands.

At the start, they had roughly 60 individual theories as to what caused the series of mishaps. Slowly they checked them off. They eliminated human failure. The plane basically was sound in design. Sabotage was ruled out. The engines were not the cause, either.

In the end, only one theory fitted the facts which reconstruction of the crashed Comet established: that the ill-fated plane had suddenly burst wide open in flight and hurled her crew and passengers to death in the Mediterranean.

That actually happened to the ghost plane in its grueling underwater tests. And the scientists believe that "metal fatigue" was the cause.

Under this theory, a metal structure has a certain reserve of strength when it is new, but it can become fatally "tired" if subject to frequent severe stress—as witness the final breaking of any piece of metal which you bend back and forth many times.

The stresses upon the Comet plane were those developed from the endless, sharp changes in air pressure as the craft climbed to altitudes of 40,000 feet and then dropped, swiftly down for landings. The interior cabin pressure, maintained for passenger comfort, exerted tremendous outward stress when the plane was in thin air.

The British "detectives" do not yet know all there is to know about metal fatigue, particularly as applied to aircraft cabins. So the hardest part of the task is still ahead: how to find the cure for this strange ill.

The problem is really not one for British scientists alone, but for all aviation experts who look ahead to the commercial jet plane age. For no one knows at this stage that the tragedy which struck the Comets would not strike other jet aircraft built for passenger transport.

Parents Could Save Worry

If They Knew How to Say NO

Today's parents of teen-agers could save a lot of wear and tear on their nerves, their energy and their pocketbooks if they could just get up the courage to say a flat "No" occasionally.

Mrs. Jones complains about how much it costs to clothe a teenager—with every week or two bringing forth a new style that is an absolute must. But it never occurs to Mrs. Jones that it is possible to say "Nothing doing" to some of her daughter's demands.

Mrs. Smith says she worries the whole time her 14-year-old daughter is out in a car with a teen-age date. But she doesn't see that she could have saved herself at least two years of such worry by not letting her daughter have car dates while she is too young to be driving herself.

MODERN WAY ISN'T BEST WAY

Mrs. Brown spends most of her time chauffeuring. Some of the activities her children are in are important. But Mrs. Brown doesn't say "No" to the most unimportant plans. Wherever her children want to go, she hops in the car and takes them, as much as their command as any hired chauffeur.

Civic clubs in one town have come in for a lot of praise because they planned a series of after-prom parties ending with a breakfast to keep high school juniors and seniors from tearing around the countryside in their cars.

That's the modern way, all right. Figure out some way to give the kids everything they want, no matter how much trouble it is for the grownups.

Of course, those parents could have kept their kids from tearing around the countryside for hours after a dance just by telling them they had to be home as soon as the dance was over.

But nobody says "No" to teen-agers any more. It's the one word today's parents are afraid of.

OFF TO DUTY UNDER NEW FLAG—The "Rising Sun" flies from the stern of the former U. S. destroyer, USS Ellyson, after it was turned over to the Japanese navy during ceremonies at Charleston, S. C. Japanese characters were painted over the old name of the ship, which was rechristened Asa Kaze.

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Election eve is zero hour for political candidates. The very worst night of the year. The weeks of strenuous campaigning end for the aspiring office seeker in a final rally. He then has a supper with his advisers, a dinner that rings with an atmosphere of false cheer and encouraging noises such as:

"You ain't got a thing to worry about. Ed. Like I told you at the start, you're in. Now go home and get some sleep."

"We want to get a picture of you voting bright and early. A little last-minute publicity in the afternoon papers won't hurt. Might pull in a few more votes—not that we really need them, of course, but the bigger the margin the better it'll look."

Ed goes home, but not to sleep. He rubs liniment on his arms to ease the soreness that comes from shaking 10,000 strange hands. He gargles with hot salt water to ease a throat hoarse from making 10,000 promises in 350 speeches.

He smiles at himself in the mirror, the blazed, Halloween pumpkin-like smile that he was worn in public for weeks. He is consoled by the thought that even the dumbest voter must be able to see that his weary face shows more character than the crafty, double-dealing features of his opponent.

"Quit fidgeting, dear, and go to bed," says his wife. "You don't have a thing to worry about."

Lying flat on his back looking up at the darkened ceiling, Ed wonders whether this is his first or 30th race, he has everything to worry about. "Nothing to worry about," That, he thinks dimly, is what they must have told Tom Dewey on election eve in 1948.

He begins to think of what life will be like if he wins the election.

The 847 supporters who already have asked him to get jobs for their relatives. The 560 picnics, union dances and family reunions he will have to attend each year and "address a few brief words."

Is it all worth it? On that thought his exhausted mind at last sinks into slumber. But it is futile.

In Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Elroy Hirsch says his decision to quit football will open the way for a full-time career before movie and television cameras.

The star pass catcher for the Los Angeles Rams announced last week that he was quitting pro football "because the thrill has gone out of the game." But there are other reasons, too, personal reasons, and his urge for a chance at a show business career.

When he explained that he was hanging up his uniform at the end of this season he told how he felt about football.

"Pro ball has changed in the last season or two. There used to be fun in the game. You looked forward to each game with a considerable thrill. You had friends on the other teams in the league—even though the friendship ended temporarily the minute the game started. You didn't see the other team using rough stuff to get certain star players."

"That's changed now. There is a tremendous pressure to win—or else. It used to be that you played like the dickens only in the 12 league games. But now the pressure is on to win the exhibition games, too. In a city with climate like Los Angeles, a team has to make a good pre-season showing in order to get good season ticket sales."

"I still get the uneasy feeling in my stomach before a game. But now I don't get that thrill of anticipation that I used to."

Personal matters were a factor in his retirement. After he had suffered four concussions within six games, his wife urged him to quit. And he has a son, 4½, whom he seldom sees for more than a day or so during the six months he is immersed in football.

Now there is his blossoming love for career. He has worked for the local ABC radio and TV stations and plays have been ready for a network show. But nothing could be done as long as he was committed to the Rams. Now he can proceed with his ambitions as a sportscaster.

And his career as a movie actor is coming along nicely. He started by portraying himself in the successful "Cravlegs." He'll soon be seen in a dramatic role as one of the prisoners in "Unchained."

Midwestern Thanksgiving

Feast is a Huge Affair

By GAYNOR MADDOX

NEA Food and Markets Editor

We stepped off in Chicago to get a traditional midwestern Thanksgiving dinner menu from our friend, Beth Bailey McLean. Vigorous, home-loving, Mrs. McLean directs Swift & Co's home economics division, writes books and travels and also entertains fulsomely.

This is what she said: Let the meal start with chilled apple cider and a tray of crisp relishes and olives served in the living room. At the dinner table the turkey, plump and gloriously browned and filled with an old-fashioned sausage stuffing, is king.

Garnish it with pickled peaches pickled with whole cloves. With the turkey serve baked acorn squash, cradling melted butter flecked with brown sugar, and cloud fluffs of mashed potatoes as a base for the creamy turkey gravy with bits of giblets.

She paused for breath then went on: follow the tradition of the broad plains states and serve a mound of finely shredded crisp red and green cabbage, creamy with vinegar-sharp dressing. Cranberries in the form of jelled rings or sparkling thick in sauce to be spooned onto the plate alongside the turkey is a must. Hot rolls and butter or margarine are a necessary accompaniment.

An old-fashioned dessert takes on a new look in the form of pumpkin chiffon tarts, served later in the living room, along with steaming cups of coffee and glasses of chilled milk.

Midwestern Sausage Stuffing (enough for 10-12 birds)

One half pound brown-and-serve sausage, cut into small pieces, 20 slices very dry toasted white bread, 1 cup milk 4 cups water 1 cup finely chopped celery 1 cup finely chopped celery leaves 2 tablespoons optional: 1 tablespoon poultry seasoning 1 cup butter or margarine, melted

Crumble toast into a large bowl. Add milk and water, and mix until toast is moist. Add remaining ingredients and mix well. Stuff the cavity and neck of the turkey with a little room for the stuffing to expand.

THANKSGIVING DINNER: chilled apple cider, relishes, roast turkey, sausage stuffing, pickled peaches, garnish, mashed potatoes, giblet gravy, cranberry sauce, baked acorn squash, green and red cabbage slaw, hot rolls, butter or margarine, pumpkin chiffon tarts, coffee, tea, milk.

Only five thoroughbreds are left here compared with 30 in 1949 when five breeders exported more than 100 pups a year. Harold MacPherson, well-known Newfoundland merchant, doesn't think the industry will recover until regulations are revised.

Before Newfoundland joined Canada registering the dogs was a simple process, all done on paper. Today, however, the dogs must be either tattooed or nose-printed.

MacPherson thinks tattooing is cruel and says Newfoundland dogs are not suited for nose-printing because they sweat too much.

Many Factors Figure to Influence Mid-Term Election

By PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP)—The year's elections will probably be given more of a post-mortem analysis than any except 1948, when all the experts were wrong. For the factors influencing the election results this year lend themselves to many interpretations and fluency mid-term elections.

The easy explanation for what happens in any mid-term election is a depression. But this has been that local issues and personalities true only when there has been a real depression than now found in the country.

This year, however, the Republicans came farm and industrial areas. The Democrats decided to pitch their appeal for support for their President. And President Eisenhower intends to pitch the campaign on the GOP two-year record.

It is a good record, as congressional records go.

Government expenses have been reduced. Record tax cuts have gone into effect. Tax legislation generally has been overhauled. Inflation has been checked. The cost of living hasn't been brought down, but it hasn't been allowed to spiral upward. For the first time in 20 years, the government has a fiscal policy that makes sense.

The International Situation looks better than it has in a long time. Fighting has stopped in Korea and Indo-China. A Southeast Asia pact has been negotiated. Trieste, Suez Canal and Iranian oil crises have been settled. In Europe, the new series of agreements to rearm into Western Germany, give her North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

On points alone, the Republican administration would seem to have a big advantage, deserving to win control of Congress for another two years to tidy up the place for 1956.

But the Democrats naturally showed no enthusiasm for talking about Republican accomplishments. They wanted to campaign on what they considered the Republican failures.

So the issues become C. E. Wilson's hound-dog unemployment in the Tennessee Valley, lower dairy prices in the northwest drought relief that was considered inadequate in the southwest, and the new farm legislation.

To Meet This Challenge, the Republicans admitted that all calculations could be thrown wide by the week of punches all over the lot. Though the campaign in the concerted Res. Joseph R. McCarthy had publican drive to make 1954's mid-term temporarily silenced by the Watkins committee recommendation.

tion for Senate censure, the Republicans again attempted to make charges of communism in past Democratic administrations the principal issue of the campaign.

What should have been the real issue of the campaign were there, when all the experts were wrong. For the factors influencing the election results this year lend themselves to many interpretations and fluency mid-term elections.

Historically, there are always changes of political control after a depression. But this has been true only when there has been a real depression than now found in the country.

Historically, the Democratic vote is higher in presidential election years than in mid-term election years. The decline amounts to about seven or eight per cent of the total vote.

This would indicate a possible Democratic loss of 25 to 30 seats in the House of Representatives. But this may be offset this year by polls which show that the 1952 Republican strength of 55 per cent of the vote has declined to 50 per cent in the industrial northeast.

Historically, when there is a year's the government has a fiscal policy that makes sense. Since by actual count there are more registered Democrats than registered Republicans.

These Are The Factors, say Louis H. Bean, author of "How to Predict Elections" and "The Mid-Term Battle," which have to be taken into consideration for estimates on this year's outcome.

Dr. Bean, a keen analyst of political statistics, used a more precise formula to make his estimate that the Democrats might gain as many as 43 to 46 seats in the lower House of Congress. This was based on the percentage increase of Democratic votes, 1950 to 1954.

In the early 1950s and Alaska. Making a similar prediction on the Senate outcome was more difficult since most of the seats which Republicans had to win to retain control were in the more Republican northern U. S. But Statistician Bean forecasts the possibility of the Democrats winning control of the Senate by a couple of seats. He didn't dignify this as a prediction.

Two Virginia Men Apprehended After Burglary

VIRGINIA—Thursday night, Oct. 21, Robert Bateman and James Watkins, both of Virginia, are accused of entering the LaCross Lumber yard and making away with two hammers, saw blades, package of files, 8 gallons of paint, 3 tarpaulins, 1 electric drill, valued at about $250.

The robbery was discovered Friday morning, by Harold Noelsch, manager of the lumber yard, and was immediately reported to Sheriff Glen Hillen. That evening, Sheriff Hillen located the stolen items at the home of Bateman's parents, in this city, and had a signed statement from both men, Cass county officials reported.

They had crawled under the large west door of the building, this being possible since both are of slight build, and after gaining entrance to the yard, removed the hinges from the office door and obtained the articles.

Each was placed under a $4,000 bond and bound over to the grand jury and both confined to the county jail. Watkins gave bond, Tuesday, and was released.

Vandals
Seven boys from Chandlerville, were brought into county court, Monday, on a charge of breaking all but one of the windows in a car, including the windshield, and stealing the gasoline from the car. Sheriff Glen Hillen was called to a locality east of Chandlerville, where boys had broken the windows in a Cass county road maintainer, and threw out all the tools, but none were stolen.

County Judge Roland Rohrer put them in the custody of the probation officer for investigation and set the hearing for next week.

91st Birthday
Mrs. August Anderson, of near this city, celebrated her 91st birthday Monday. No special observance was planned, but a number of friends and relatives called and were served refreshments by Mrs. Anderson's daughter, Miss Judith.

Mrs. Anderson was born in Osterjotland Province, Sweden, and came to this country when a small child and has spent her entire life in Cass county.

Mr. Anderson died in 1943. They were the parents of two daughters: Judith at home and Mrs. Roy Musch, of near Virginia, three sons, Julius of Chapin, Arthur of Bloomington and Harold of Springfield.

Mrs. Anderson received gifts and many greetings.

Personals
Mr. and Mrs. Warren Musch, entertained the faculty of the Virginia schools and their families at a wiener roast, Wednesday evening at 6:30, at their home south-west of this city.

Shot In Hip While Cleaning 22 Rifle

CARROLLTON, Ill. (P)—Greenwood, 24, was wounded Sunday when he was cleaning a 22 rifle at his home, north of Kane.

Greenwood had loaned the firearm to a friend and was cleaning it after the gun had been returned. He was unaware it held any ammunition. The safety failed and the bullet entered Greenwood's hip.

He was taken by Richard Rens to the Boyd Memorial hospital at Carrollton and then, immediately removed to St. Joseph's hospital in Alton. His condition is regarded as painful and serious but not critical.

The injured man is employed at the Olen Industries at Alton and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Greenwood of Kane. He is married and the father of one child.

BUTCH DEWEISE HAS PARTY ON 8TH BIRTHDAY

Richard (Butch) Dewese was honored Wednesday, Oct. 27, with a party given by his parents at the Dewese home, 912 North Diamond street, celebrating his eighth birthday.

Games were played and prizes went to Renee DuBois and John Covey. The balance of the time guests enjoyed watching television. Mr. Dewese took pictures of the group seated at the dining table eating refreshments of cake and ice cream. The table was decorated with Halloween motifs.

Butch received many nice gifts. Guests were Reggie Rabinovich, Renee DuBois, Susan Wright, John Marcy, Susan Greenier, John Covey, Larry Quigley and Danny and David Dewese, brothers of the guest of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Dewese, host and hostess.

MRS. ELLA ASHBY IS HOSTESS TO AMOMI CLASS AT PARTY

The Quarterly Birthday party for members of the Amomi Bible class was held Thursday, Oct. 28, at the home of Mrs. Ella Ashby, 754 West Lafayette avenue. Ladies who have birthdays in August, September and October, were the assistant hostesses. There were two guests present, Mrs. Malcomson and Mrs. Wilder's daughter, Mrs. Mildred Walker.

Mrs. Hall was program chairman and conducted games and contests. Prizes were won by Mrs. Cora Lovell, Mrs. R. L. Dumas and Mrs. C. R. Dowland.

VISIT MISSOURI KIN

Mrs. Flora Knowles and Mrs. Ruth Hoover, both of Jacksonville, spent the weekend with Mrs. Knowles' sister, Mrs. Lacy Parlier at Mt. Sterling. On Sunday they drove to Center, Mo. and spent the day with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Allison and family and other relatives visiting at the Allison home.

Oldest Ex-Cancer Patient Starts Another Century

SOUTH PARIS, Maine (P)—Mrs. Julia Chadbourn, who still works as a country news correspondent, today began her second century of life.

She celebrated her 100th birthday Sunday when two parties, one at the home of her niece, Mrs. June Pringle, with whom she is spending the winter, and the other in nearby North Brimston, her home town.

Bright-eyed and alert, she still turns out every day for the Bridgton News for which she was a regular correspondent for about 40 years. The American Cancer Society considers Mrs. Chadbourn the nation's oldest cancer patient since she underwent surgery when she was 80.

Children Collect $878 Sunday For UNICEF Project

Four hundred and fifty children collected $878.78 in coin and bills Sunday night when between the hours of 6 p.m. and 7:30 they called at homes in Jacksonville for contribution to UNICEF. The project to benefit the world's 600 million underprivileged children, was sponsored by the local United Council of Churchwomen and Our Saviors' parish. The funds will be used to purchase food and medical supplies and to set up welfare centers for children.

Additional funds will come from response to a Protestant Hour radio program about UNICEF, Alpha Phi Omega Omega at Illinois College and from the Methodist churches at Murrayville and Canbyville.

Mrs. Lawrence Crawford, general chairman, expressed appreciation to all working to make the first city-wide UNICEF collection such an outstanding success and to those who contributed to generously and expressed their understanding of so worthy a project.

When the cashier, Mrs. Gilbert Doss, and her assistants realized Sunday night the size of the collection they summoned Jacksonville police for protection in handling the sum. Twelve people were needed during the two hour period necessary to count the many pennies, nickels, dimes and larger currency.

A party was given at the YMCA for the young collectors. Group singing was led by Lloyd Granke. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Warren Flower, Mrs. Carroll Ryan, Mrs. J. Frank Janssen, Mrs. C. L. Huffman, Mrs. Arthur Yates, Mrs. Roy Smith, Mrs. Lester Abbott and Mrs. Pryor Bosarte. In addition to the above named who also supervised in the collection were Mrs. Eleanor Hassell, Mrs. John Conant, Mrs. Ruth Clifford, Miss Marguerite Schoedsack, Dr. Nolan Smith and Mrs. Margaret Mitchell.

The firm's bid was $39,866.

Janitors' Strike Closes 20 Decatur Public Schools

DECATUR, Ill. (P)—A strike of school janitors, maintenance men and bus drivers today forced closing of 20 of Decatur's 26 public schools.

It was estimated that between 11,000 and 12,000 children were getting the unscheduled holiday because of the walkout. The only schools open were six that have gas or oil heat.

The 20 buildings were hostless because of the strike, with the temperature in the 30s today. Also, many pupils usually are transported to their schools in the buses which now are idle.

The union involved is Local 279 of the A.F. of M. Janitors Union which is a combination pay raise and shorter working hours. Janitors now get $205 to $285 monthly plus a $25 allowance per month during the winter for all overtime work. The union asks $190 to $190 hourly for a 44-hour week, plus $1.60 hourly for all overtime.

INDUSTRIAL DIAMONDS—Thousands of carats of diamonds are consumed by the steel industry annually. Most of these diamonds look like dark-gray, sharp-edged pebbles, known as "carbons" and are imported from Brazil.

FALSE ALARM—Northern lights glowed so vividly on the night of January 25, 1938, that newspaper offices all over western Europe were flooded with calls of "Where's the fire?"

James K. Polk assumed the presidency in a drenching rain in 1845 and his is known as the "Umbrella inauguration."

DOUBLE EAGLE STAMPS TUESDAY—HOPPER'S

CARNIVAL By Mark Turne

Octopus cooked in its own ink is considered a delicacy in Portugal.

Runs on water

The Central American basilisk is believed to be the only lizard capable of running on water. This feat is done by the speed with which it travels. Using its long tail as a rudder, it skips across the water and doesn't have time to sink.

NEW COMERS CLUB NAMES OFFICERS

Newcomers club elected and installed officers last Wednesday evening at their meeting held at the Congregational church.

The new officers are: president, Ann Rice; vice president, Kay Bessell; secretary, Rosemary Farmer; assistant secretary, Marjory Bettman; treasurer, Carol Brownless; program chairman, Genevieve Curry and the assistant program chairman, Helen McCrane.

After the installation tea and coffee were served. The next meeting will be held Nov. 17, instead of the regular time falling on Nov. 24, this is because of the holiday on Thanksgiving.

Passavant Aid Fall Bazaar All Day Saturday

A large scale Fall Bazaar will be held Saturday, November 6, by the Passavant Memorial Area Hospital Aid Society at the YMCA Youth Center and will include an elaborate selection of baked goods and other choice foods and as a special feature this year a concession of table appointment accessories and table and home decorations.

The thousand and some odd members of the Society have been preparing for weeks plans for the Bazaar which will be open to the public at the Y on West State street from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the afternoon. Donations for the gigantic sale will be brought from Jacksonville, Bluffs, Winchester, Manchester, Alexander, Concord, Chapin, Murrayville, Woodson and other areas.

The food booths will feature an enticing array of baked goods, pastries, delicacies, prized canned delicacies, fillers and jams, eggs, butter, cream and other farm products, homemade candies and a variety of special foods.

Mrs. John Shay and Mrs. Helen Ransdell are in charge of the food concession. Any member of the society or donor for the bazaar wishing information may contact either of the ladies. The Youth Center will open Saturday morning at 8 a.m. for contributions to be accepted and arranged for attractive display.

There will be ample parking for all out of the business district and away from the Saturday rush. Members of the Aid Society will be present to care for customers in quick and efficient manner.

The decorations, concession, a timely and unique project, will feature this year specially shipped greens from the state of Minnesota and bouquets of pinecones. These greens may be kept indefinitely for later holiday decorating.

Other offerings will include colorful table centerpieces, novelty decorations and members of the Girl Scouts and some of the 4-H clubs are making dainty napkins and place cards for the sale. Of great interest will be the large display of candies for the holiday and other decorative uses. They will be all sizes, shapes, colors and prices.

Mrs. Warren Massey and Mrs. J. Allen Ryan are in charge of the decorations concession.

Dr. Pankhurst To Sneak At College

The MacMurray College chapel service of Tuesday, Nov. 2 at 11 a.m., will consist of a program under the direction of Dr. McKendree M. Blair, college chaplain.

Robert Glasgow will play on the organ "Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring," by Bach; and there will be a choral prelude, "If Thou But Suffer God to Guide Thee," by Bach.

The Madrigal club, under the direction of Mrs. Helen H. Hamilton, will sing "Hear My Prayer" by Mendelssohn.

The address, "What is Personality?" will be given by Dr. Harris Pankhurst, the minister of the Pilgrim Congregational church of this city.

The public is cordially invited to attend this service.

GROTTO TO MAKE SMORGASBORD PLANS AT MEETING NOV. 3

The regular monthly meeting of the members of Zingbad Grotto will be held at the Jacksonville Masonic Temple on Wednesday, November 3, 1954. The Monarch, Robert A. DuBois, will open the meeting at 7:30 p.m. and he urges all members of the Grotto to attend as several items of business will come before the meeting on which he desires a vote of the membership.

Plans will also be made for a social meeting this month, featuring a smorgasbord. The officers and their ladies are to serve as the committee for this social, which will be the last of the present term. The election of officers will be held on December 1.

Many Would Adopt Hold Rites For Boy Who Ran Away Miss Lazenby After Mom Killed

MANSFIELD, Ohio (P)—Offers of adoption are pouring into a Mansfield receiving home for a shy, freckle-faced 14-year-old who ran away from home after his mother was murdered.

He is Walter Smith Jr. He was returned to the home when his father, Walter Smith, a Gateburg, Ill., mechanic, failed to pick him up as scheduled Saturday.

His mother, Mrs. Delora Cawthon, had remarried and moved to Mansfield. She was shot Oct. 12 by Joseph Schwartz, who then shot himself. Walter, coming home from school, found the bodies.

After the funeral, Walter and his 602, Punky, ran away. Sheriff Carson Davis in Findlay, some 50 miles northwest of Mansfield, gave Walter a home in the county jail and sent for his father.

But the father never showed up and the dog ran away. Probate Judge, in Richland and Hancock counties referred the boy to the receiving home.

Sheriff Davis said Sunday he was "loaded with letters" with money, Walter and offers of adoption and a college education.

"I Don't Know Why" Says Peorian Who Shot, Killed Wife

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (P)—Police say Samuel Canino, 39, of Peoria, Ill., shot his wife to death Sunday after she turned down his pleas to give their marriage another try.

"All of a sudden I started shooting. I don't know why I started shooting," police quoted Canino as saying. He is booked on suspicion of murder.

Mrs. Evelyn Canino, 27, had come to San Pedro from Peoria to live with her mother two weeks ago. Her estranged husband followed and arrived Wednesday.

In the apartment at the time were her mother, Mrs. Velma Murray, and her stepfather, William Murray. They called police. Canino calmly surrendered.

Wooldridge Home On Grove Street Damaged By Fire

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wooldridge, 806 Grove street, was damaged by fire and smoke early Monday morning, but the blaze was extinguished before any major damage occurred.

The fire was confined to the basement, but charred floor joists and the sub-floor, also damaging wiring. The two-story house was filled with smoke.

Mr. Wooldridge, in a east since serious injuries in an automobile accident several months ago, was sleeping in an upstairs room when the alarm was sounded at 3:35 a.m. Because of his condition the inside door was closed, a window was raised so that he could breathe fresh air, and he was not moved down the stairway.

A large line of water was used to quench the basement fire.

I. C. Enrollment Shows Increase

Total number of students taking classes at Illinois College this year is an 18 per cent increase over last year, Dean Ernest G. Hildner reported Monday.

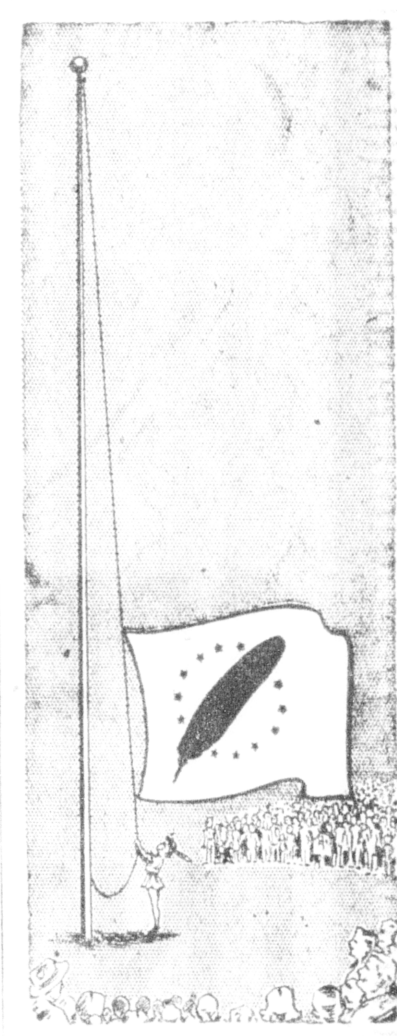

The fall registration totals 300 students, as compared with 254 for the same date last year.

Of the three hundred, 255 are full-time students, while 35 are nurses and 12 are enrolled for other special work.

Attention Voters!

In reply to the article on Mr. Fred Points candidacy for County Commissioner, it was stated that they were able to reduce the budget by $10,000 which was the first time in the existence of the relief office. This statement was not true. When Mr. Virgil Wegehoft went in office Nov. 1949 the opposition had reduced the tax levy to run the relief office $45,000, causing the heavy deficit in this office, but when Mr. Wegehoft left office in Nov. 1952 there was a balance of better than $30,000 in the relief fund. Also Mr. Points advertised that the County was out of debt before the April primary. The court house records will show on April 1 that the Commissioner had anticipation warrants against the County totaling $25,000. How long must the people put up with these campaign falsehoods? As a County Commissioner for 3 years I know what I am talking about. The above statements are true, if you doubt them, look at the records in the Courthouse.

Lions Release Bob Smith After Pushing Incident

DETROIT (AP)—Halfback J. Robert (Tulsa) Smith was released on waivers by the Detroit Lions Monday after a scuffle in Los Angeles with assistant coach Buster Ramsey.

Smith, who played college ball for Tulsa and Iowa, came out of retirement and rejoined the Lions in September but he missed nine weeks of training.

The Lions beat the Rams, 27-24, Sunday. After the game, Smith reportedly complained that he sat on the bench too much. This led to an exchange of pushes and swings that was broken up quickly by other players and coaches.

Head coach Buddy Parker immediately took action.

"Smith, you're through," he said. "Smith, who played college ball for Tulsa and Iowa, came out of retirement and rejoined the Lions in September but he missed nine weeks of training."

IBC Asks Sports Writer To Prove Criminal Tieup

CHICAGO (AP)—The International Boxing Club asked a Chicago sports writer, who has started an "expose" series on the "literal kidnapping of the entire sport of boxing by syndicate criminals," to prove his charges Monday.

In a letter to the Illinois State Athletic Commission, Truman Gibson, IBC secretary, also asked that the sports writer, Jack Mabley, of the Daily News, appear before the commission and give his information.

Gibson's letter said in part: "The Chicago Daily News today (Monday) carried a front sports page story entitled 'Expose Mob Tieup With Boxing Game.' The conclusion of the author, Jack Mabley, is that boxing has been kidnapped by syndicate criminals."

"He states 'the czar of boxing is Carlo... while he states that Carlo controls boxing from New York, he also states that Chicago 'has a vital concern in the racket.'"

"He refers to the International Boxing Club, perhaps unaware that only domestic corporations can promote boxing and that the International Boxing Club of New York has a domestic corporation license in that state."

"If Mr. Mabley, or anyone else, has information that would reflect on the integrity of the Illinois State Athletic Commission, any judges or officials appointed by the commission, or any licensees of the commission, then he has the responsibility to present this information to the commission..."

Neither officials of the State Boxing Commission nor Mabley were immediately available for comment on the Gibson statement.

Mabley's story said that "the literal kidnapping of the entire sport of boxing by syndicate criminals makes the Black Sox scandal of baseball look like a pink tea by comparison."

Chicago Wants 1960 Olympics

CHICAGO (AP)—A 12-man committee headed by former Olympic runner Thomas H. Coulter met with Mayor Martin H. Kennelly Monday to prepare Chicago's plea for the 1960 Olympic games.

Coulter, who said he thought Chicago's chances are very good, added that six other cities had been invited by the U. S. Olympic Assn. to present their bids.

The cities are New York, Philadelphia, Detroit, Minneapolis, Los Angeles and Washington.

Coulter said Chicago is vying only for the summer games which would be held in August for 16 days.

Mayor Kennelly said "we're very much interested in bringing the games to Chicago and I sincerely hope that the committee is successful."

Wolves Change Tune As Cornhuskers Win

By RANDALL W. BLAKE
LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—A year ago the howl from the wolf pack was "Go Glassford Go."

Today, there is a cry of "Glory to Glassford."

Such has been the change of times and attitudes for Coach Bill Glassford of the University of Nebraska football team. A year ago the Cornhuskers stumbled through a season marked by defeats when they were "ranked" to win.

Now the Cornhuskers are collaring victories when they were ranked to lose. And they stand a good chance of being the Big Seven conference representative in the Orange Bowl.

When Glassford came to Nebraska, he was in on the heels of a number of bad seasons. In his second year he came up with a team sparked by Bob Reynolds, a sensational sophomore who made The Associated Press All America team.

His alma mater, Pitt, wanted him for coach then. But Nebraska kept him here with loud student demonstrations and a five-year contract, plus a five-year renewal option.

There followed heavy losses by graduation, a series of injuries to Reynolds, and bad seasons from the won and lost view.

So it came about that the wolf pack gathered. Glassford pointed to his contract and the university's board of regents finally decided that a contract was a contract and it Glassford wanted to stick to it, the university must do the same.

On the same night the regents said Glassford would stay, several players said they never would play again for Glassford.

Today those same players are key men in the resurgence of Nebraska. At Glassford put it "The boys are winning. It's fine."

FAN BREEZES

BY BILL MERRIS

Although he isn't the leading scorer in the state it probably isn't his fault. We're speaking of ISD's Jack Ramsey who has scored 85 points in his team's first seven games while playing only a little over half of the time. In only two of the Tigers' games has the hard running fullback had an opportunity to go the route.

Jack Ramsey

In the other five games the 5-10, 168-pound athlete has spent a little over half of the time on the bench. It has been one of those years when the coach has had to play the second and third stringers to keep from running up the score. We feel this has been a blow to Jack. Regardless of the opposition he would have scored a few more points if he had played more. He's that kind of a ball player.

Of course you have to go along with coach Spink. If he had played his first stringers and ran up the score he would have been in for a lot of criticism from the fans and the opponents. Jack has carried the ball 7 times this year and picked up 60 yards from the line of scrimmage for a 9.9 yards per try average.

"This has to be one of the top marks in the state. Anytime you can give the ball to a runner and be assured of almost 10 yards—it's something for the books."

The Bowen, Illinois product is just as outstanding on defense. After watching the Wisconsin-ISD game Saturday we are even more convinced he is one of the better linebackers in this part of the state. His "football sense" and other abilities make him a deadly tackler.

Jack not only shines on the gridiron but he is a better than average basketball player and a top high school baseball player. His willingness to work and his ability to get along with others make him what the coaches term "a ballplayer's player." He will certainly go down as one of ISD's finest athletes.

Football Briefs

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Northwestern counted its football injuries Monday—seven in all, including five regulars.

The regulars are halfback Jim Troglio and quarterback Johnson Rearden, expected to be out for the season; ends Bob Morman and Fred Nosal, and fullback Bob Lauter.

Morman and Lauter have been nursing injuries for more than a week. Nosal dislocated a thumb in the Ohio State game.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—J. C. Caroline remained a question mark Monday as Illinois opened drills for the Michigan game.

Coach Rex Ellet, uncertain whether his ace halfback will recuperate from an injured left shoulder, will test Harry Jefferson in Caroline's left halfback spot this week.

Jefferson, a sophomore, earlier this season was handicapped with a fractured jaw. He has been No. 2 right half this fall behind Abe Woodson, another sophomore.

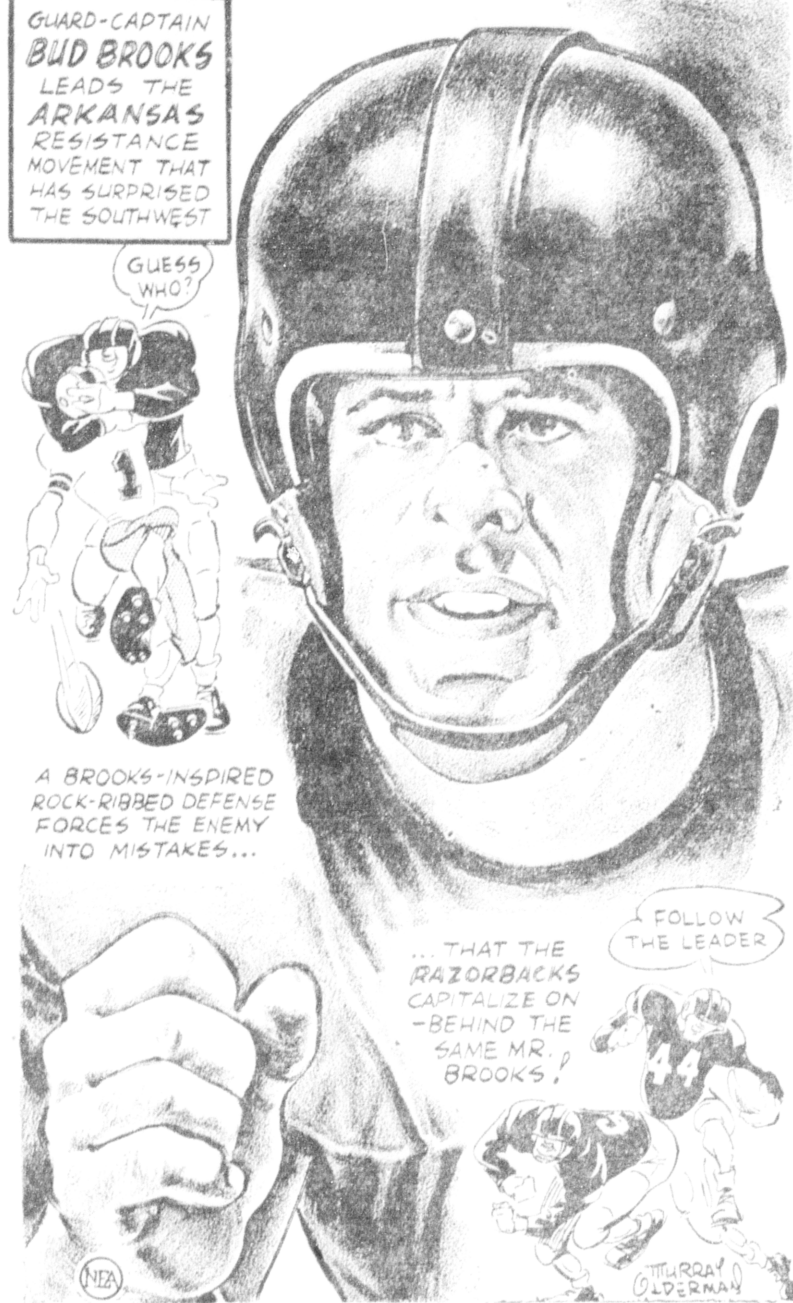

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—University of Wisconsin football players who saw action against Iowa last week ended looked at movies of the game Monday and listened to scout reports on Northwestern, next Saturday's Homecoming foe.

Squad members who sat out the 13-7 defeat by Iowa were put through a rough contact session on a snow covered field. There were no injuries in drill and none reported in the Iowa game.

UCLA Cops Number 7, Keeps Top Spot In AP Weekly Football Poll

By WILL GRIMSLEY
The Associated Press

Powerful UCLA, which has averaged nearly a point a minute in sweeping through seven straight games, shot into No. 1 place Monday and became the third leader in three weeks in The Associated Press football poll.

Red Sanders' single-wing offense, which has rolled up 292 points for a 41.7 average, replaced Ohio State, which had wrested top place from Oklahoma the week before.

Still unbeaten and untied but unimpressive in last Saturday's victories, Ohio State fell to second place and Oklahoma to third as UCLA climbed from No. 3 in the closest balloting of the campaign.

It's the first time Oklahoma has been lower than second. The Sooners were the first week's leaders, yielded briefly to Notre Dame, then took back the command position after Purdue's upset of the Fighting Irish.

Arkansas, which beat Texas A&M 14-7 for its sixth straight victory, held firmly to the No. 4 spot. Completing the top 10 in order were: Notre Dame, Miami (Fla.) Army, Purdue, Mississippi and Southern California.

A total of 281 votes were cast by sports writers and broadcasters. UCLA drew 72 first place votes to 69 for Ohio State and 42 for Oklahoma.

The leading teams with first place votes and season's records in parentheses (points based on 10 for first place, 9-8 7-6 5-4 3-2-1):

1. UCLA (7-0) (7-0) 1,931
2. Ohio State (6-0) (6-0) 1,903
3. Oklahoma (4-2) (6-0) 1,666
4. Arkansas (1-6) (6-0) 1,494
5. Notre Dame (4-1) (4-1) 957
6. Miami (Fla.) (1-4) (6-0) 870
7. Army (1) (5-1) 755
8. Purdue (4-1-1) 685

SPORTS TRAIL

By WHITNEY MARTIN

NEW YORK (AP)—The Old Professor was munching a banana, and his Monday morning class of football coaches looked at him apprehensively. Most people peel the skin off first, and it looked like the old gent had finally had slipped his rocker.

Old Professor—Don't be alarmed, gentlemen. When I eat chicken I always eat the bones, too. Skin and Bones Martin, they call me. Makes you strong.

Pappy Waldorf, California—Speaking of strength, professor, I would say that UCLA is stronger than either Oklahoma or Ohio State on the days we met them. UCLA is the best team on the coast since I came here in '47.

Red Sanders, UCLA—This was our best game of the year. It had to be. There's no doubt but that our team is better than last year's.

Old Professor—Eat banana peels and chicken bones and you can stop anything. They really pep you up.

Forest Evashevski, Iowa—We didn't do that, professor, but our boys were hopped up anyway, and beat a fine Wisconsin team. Alan Amezcua is the best fullback I've ever seen.

Ivy Williamson, Wisconsin—Both teams played real fine. We had our chances and didn't come through. The big difference was that Iowa cashed in on its opportunities and we didn't.

Old Professor—They cashed in and you checked out I take it. Mr. Lewis, cheer up. You look like you lost your last friend.

Art (Pappy) Lewis, West Virginia—I don't know about that but we lost a tough game. Pitt has come a long way, and has a great ball club. I don't care for myself, but I'm mighty sorry for the boys. It was one of those games that could have gone either way with one tiny break.

Tom Hamilton, Pitt—Our two tackles, Lou Palella and Eldred Kraemer, were terrific in a terrific game.

White Hall Whips Greenfield 26-7 In JV Battle

WHITE HALL (Special)—Coach Billy McCarthy's White Hall froshes defeated Greenfield 26-7 last night for the third win of the season. It was the final game for the Maroons, who finished the season with a 3-1-1 mark.

Kitsmiller got the scoring under way for the winners in the first period when he raced 65 yards to hit pay dirt. He also made the extra point. McPherson also scored for White Hall in the initial frame. The fullback went off tackle for 35 yards and the hosts scored TD. He converted to give White Hall a 14-0 lead at the end of the first period.

The winners scored twice more in the second period. Alvin made both touchdowns. He went off tackle on a two yard plunge for the first one and returned a punt 50 yards for the second one.

Greenfield scored its lone tally in the fourth period.

Brandt and Kitsmiller had long runs called back on clipping penalties in the first half.

Coach McCarthy used all 35 players as he substituted freely throughout the second half.

Caterpillars Trip China 72-28 In World Meet

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—The Peoria, Ill. Caterpillars took a 75-5 victory over the Chinese to literally play over the heads of tiny Nationalist China Monday night for a 72-28 victory in the World Basketball Tournament.

It was the fifth championship round triumph for the unbeaten United States team and the most one-sided score of the tournament 67 thus far. The Caterpillars led 31-11 at the half.

Playing with a six to eight-inch advantage the Cats never trailed. Center B. H. Born led the scoring with 14 points while playing only a part of the game as Coach Warren Womble cleared the bench.

The victory kept the U. S. in a first place tie with Brazil, the tournament's only other unbeaten team, which defeated France 49-36 Monday night. The Caterpillars and Brazil meet in the final game of the tournament Saturday.

Ohio State's Chances For Rose Bowl Good

By JOE MOOSHLIL

CHICAGO (AP)—Ohio State has taken over undisputed possession of first place in the Big Ten and only a complete, unforeseen collapse can keep the Buckeyes from the title and Rose Bowl.

The Buckeyes, following their 14-7 victory over stubborn Northwestern, need only one more victory to clinch a share of the title and if that one victory happens to be over Michigan, Ohio State will take everything.

Although Purdue and Minnesota remain in the running, they each have one defeat and play only six conference games.

Michigan, however, plays seven games and must beat Illinois, Michigan State and Ohio State to keep its chances alive. After losing to Indiana, it doesn't seem possible that the Wolverines can make it.

The Buckeyes play Pitt Saturday before taking on Purdue and Michigan. Purdue and Minnesota can only move in if Purdue and Michigan both beat Ohio State and Michigan loses to either Illinois or Michigan State.

That was the picture following Saturday's games in which Wisconsin was knocked out of the race by Iowa and Purdue and Minnesota defeated Illinois and Michigan State, last year's co-champions.

Ohio State proved its worth Saturday by coming from behind to defeat Northwestern. The Wildcats completely outplayed the nation's No. 1 team in the first period and took a short-lived 7-0 lead in the second quarter.

The Bucks tied it up before intermission and then scored on a final-quarter, 24-yard pass from Dave Leggett to Bobby Watkins.

Indiana's Florian Helinski proved to be too much for Michigan. The Hoosier back ran over one touchdown and then fired a payoff pass to Milt Campbell, both touchdowns coming in the second quarter.

Indiana then turned to defense and contained the Wolverines in the last half for its first conference victory of the year.

Iowa's Hawkeyes picked up two Wisconsin fumbles at opportune moments to turn back the Badgers, 13-7. Wisconsin was moving in for at least a game-tying touchdown in the last quarter but a fumbled handoff, recovered by Iowa, ended Badger hopes.

Purdue's Bill Murakowski smashed for two touchdowns to lead the Boilermakers to a 28-14 victory over Illinois. The Illini played without J. C. Caroline who sat out the game with a shoulder injury.

Two of Purdue's scores resulted from Illinois fumbles. Len Dawson fired another touchdown pass for the Boilermakers—his 13th of the year.

Once again Bob McNamara took the reins for the Gophers and scored two touchdowns as Minnesota slapped down Michigan State's tormented Rose Bowl champions, 19-13. It was the Spartans' fifth loss of the season which has proved one of Michigan State's most dismal since its rise as a grid power.

In other games—Notre Dame scored on a perfect pass play—a 46-yard toss from Ralph Guglielmi to Jim Morse—defeat Navy 6-0 on a muddy field at Memorial Stadium in Baltimore.

Navy blew a chance to score when Bob Craig pounded across Notre Dame's goal but fumbled as he got over and Notre Dame recovered.

Hurricane Elgheny, leading runner back and ground gainer in pro football, suffered a shoulder sprain in the closing minutes of the Bear game, which the Chicago team won 31 to 27.

McElhenny underwent an operation Monday. A metal pin was placed in the injured shoulder.

Missouri Loses 3 Quarterbacks

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP)—With his top three quarterbacks on the ailing list, Coach Don Faurot Monday began preparing his University of Missouri football team for its Big Seven game with Colorado here next Saturday.

Faurot said he doubted that either Tony Scardino or Gerry Smith, both injured in the Nebraska game last week, will be able to play against the Buffs. He was more hopeful for Vic Eaton, however, and said that Jack Brase, temporarily on duty at right halfback will take over the No. 1 quarterback spot in practice Tuesday.

FULLER-LABUA SIGN
BROOKLYN, N. Y. (AP)—Gene Fullmer, Salt Lake City middleweight, was signed Monday for a 10-round main event at Eastern Parkway Arena Nov. 8 against Jackie Labua of New York. The bout will be televised in some parts of the country (ABC).

Chances Of Buying A's Excellent: Johnson

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
CHICAGO (AP)—Arnold Johnson Monday tabbed his chances of buying the Philadelphia Athletics as "excellent," disclosed for the first time the identities of his partners in the transaction, and declared he was ready to spend "another million dollars for players."

The dozed efforts of the Chicago industrialist to buy the A's franchise from the Macks and move it to Kansas City have been a feature in one of baseball's most unusual tug-of-wars.

Johnson said in an interview that his offer of $3,375,000 to the Macks—brothers Roy and Earle, and their father, Connie—for the Philadelphia franchise "will stand."

"The deal just has to jell a little field."

New York Bond Market

NEW YORK (P)—The corporate bond market was steady Monday but U. S. government obligations lost ground.

Industrials and utilities tended to inch upward in selective trading. Railroads fluctuated narrowly. "Big board" volume declined to $2,590,000 par value from $3,420,000 Friday and $3,805,000 a week ago.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (P)—The stock market staged an election eve rally Monday and made moderate progress.

The market started out modestly enough and spent the largest part of the day in a narrow range. Then in the final hour, prices perked up all around and closed at their best.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks gained 80 cents at $134.70 with the industrial component up $1.20 (it contains Good-year), railroads ahead 60 cents, and utilities up 30 cents.

The list narrowed down to 1,168 individual issues of which 499 advanced and 395 declined with 29 new highs and 9 new lows for the year registered during the day.

Volume came to only 1,790,000 shares as compared with 1,900,000 traded Friday, both well below average.

The American Stock Exchange was mixed on volume of 470,000 shares. That compares with 490,000 shares traded Friday.

All financial and commodity markets in the United States will be closed Tuesday for election day.

Prime Steers At $27.50 Set Top For 12 Months

NATIONAL STOCK YARDS, Ill.—A moderate supply of cattle received good buyer support during the closing week of October, according to the Producers Live Stock Marketing Association. Hogs registered little net change under increased marketings, while lamb values declined moderately.

Slaughter steers and heifers were unevenly steady to 50c higher, advance mostly on the choice and prime. Prime 1047-lb Angus steers topped at $27.50 cwt. for the highest price in a year. Heifers grading prime at $25.50 were the highest in this class in fourteen months. Most choice steers cashed at $23.25 to $25.50; commercial and good $18.50 to $23.25.

Cows and bulls were little changed and real calves sold steady to $1.00 reduced, loss on some of the commercial and lower grades. There continued a good demand for replacement stock and prices reflected a strong undertone.

Salable hogs of slightly better than $3,000 head were 13 per cent above those of a week ago and totaled the largest for any month since March, 1953. October receipts of 211,000 also figured the largest since last March.

While barrow and gilt hogs finished about in line with a week ago, packing sows were down 25 to 50c. Monday's hog top of $19.75 was the highest in more than a month, but Friday's peak rested at $19.50. Lightweight butchers commanded a premium position and stronger weight butchers late Friday had to sell around $18.85 or under. Packing sows late sold in a spread of $15.75 to $18.00.

Lambs finished 50c lower, closing top $20.50 and bulk of good to prime brought $19.00 to $20.50. Numerous lots of No. 1 and 2 skins brought $19.00 to $20.25.

In the wholesale market at Chicago choice and prime steer and heifer beef held steady; good grade was steady to 1 cent a pound higher; commercial steady to one cent lower. Veal and calf two to three cents higher; lambs steady to two cents lower; pork loins one to two cents higher.

BEANS LEAD GRAINS TO HIGHER PRICES

CHICAGO (P)—Most futures contracts pushed higher on the Chicago Board of Trade Monday with soybeans again leading the way.

Strength in soybean meal combined with adverse supply reports from the country to give beans additional upward pressure. Poor harvesting weather, assumed to cause further shattering of beans still in the field, was expected to reduce country supplies.

Reports also were current that some bean producers were storing as much as 60 to 80 per cent of the crop.

Wheat finished unchanged to 1/2 cent higher, corn 3/4-5/8 up, oats unchanged to 3/4 higher and rye 1/2 to 1 1/4 better. Soybeans ranged from unchanged to 3/4, cents more while hard was 13 lower to 10 cents a hundred pounds higher.

The Board of Trade reported receipts of soybeans in Chicago during October ran some 70 per cent below a year ago although the federal Agriculture Department estimates the 1954 crop at some 70 million bushels above a year ago.

Increased farm consumption as a result of snow reportedly up to three inches in parts of Illinois and temperatures predicted for as low as five degrees above zero in Minnesota further bolstered the corn market.

The grain market will be closed Tuesday for election day.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

CHICAGO (P)—The country offered 14,000 hogs for public sale Monday, an increase of 1,000 over a week ago. The increase was the exact number the grade fell short of complete clearance, even though prices declined 25 to 50 cents a hundred pounds.

Cattle and sheep had a different appearance, however. The 19,000 cattle on hand were far below the 25,000 head offered a week earlier and prices responded steady to 25 cents higher. Sheep were steady to 75 cents higher with clipped lambs well in the van.

Most butcher weight hogs sold from $18.25 to $19.15, the top edging up to $19.25. Sows took $15.00 to $17.75 mostly and topped at $18.00.

Good to prime steers brought $21.00 to $29.75 but high-prime steers merited up to $31.25. Good to prime heifers took $20.75 to $26.50. Cows moved at $12.00 downward, bulls at $15.00 and under and vealers from $24.00 downward.

Woolled lambs in good to prime flesh took $19.00 to $21.50 and clips $19.50 to $21.00. Ewes sold from $5.50 to lower.

An estimated 400 calves and 2,500 sheep went through the sales channels.

U. S. RUBBER RAISES TIRE PRICES

NEW YORK (P)—United States Rubber Co. Monday raised its tire prices 2 1/2 to 5 per cent.

The 5 per cent increase, effective Tuesday, applies to the company's entire line of passenger car tires and tubes, as well as to tires and tubes for light trucks and farm implements.

Howard N. Hawkes, vice president and general manager, attributed the increase to higher labor and material costs.

No American Can 'Sit Out' Election: Ike

Nixon through "stable policies." He noted the President's plan for a highway program, and said he would develop power resources on a partnership basis.

"We want our government to be liberal and humanitarian," Nixon declared. He said broader social security, unemployment insurance and progress in the field of health and welfare have come under the administration "without being socialistic."

Policies of the administration, the vice president asserted, are based on "persuasion" rather than "demagoguery," and he contended "they make the American dream come true."

The vice president argued that the preceding Democratic administration had "failed" to meet communism in the United States "effectively."

He insisted that the "Communist conspiracy has tentacles" in the United States although he saw no likelihood it would overthrow the American government.

The vice president praised new laws adopted to meet communism, singling out especially the one which would take away citizenship of persons convicted of conspiring to overthrow the government by force.

Nixon was scheduled to leave Denver at 2:15 a.m. EST for a flight to Washington, arriving there at 8 a.m.

The broadcast was made in the studios of KLTZ-TV, Denver affiliate of the Columbia Broadcasting System, and the vice president spoke without an audience. Even newsmen covering the speech listened in from an adjoining conference room and did not see the speaker except over a monitored set.

Stevenson Criticizes Making Political Issue Of Peace, War

played on fear, mistrust and suspicion, exploiting those things that divide rather than those things that unite our people, rejecting our ancient precept that men can differ on public questions and still be equal in their patriotism and devotion to country."

Candidates who "substitute denunciation for debate and smear for sense," Stevenson said, "are disloyal to the deepest traditions of constitutional democracy."

He posed this question: "Is it to clarify or mislead that the Republicans charge the Democrats with being 'soft' toward communism, when all, every one, of the great historic steps to organize the struggle against communism in the world and in our country were initiated by Democratic administrations?"

He listed these steps as "the Greek-Turkish aid program, the Marshall Plan, the Berlin airlift, the Point Four program, the North Atlantic Alliance, yes, and the prosecution of over 60 of the top Communist leaders—and also the orderly search for disloyalty among federal employees which, listening to Republicans, you would hardly know was started five years before they came to Washington."

The Democratic leader said the question of whether it would be best for the country to have a Republican President and a Democratic Congress "has troubled many thoughtful people and it deserves a sober answer."

He added: "The implication that a Republican president is somehow entitled to a Republican Congress contradicts our Constitution, which specifically provides for congressional elections every two years just so that the people can register their attitude toward the administration in office."

He declared the Republicans never said the president and Congress should be of the same party, when there was a Democratic President.

Stevenson's 15-minute broadcast was arranged in such a way that local candidates in some states could cut in and speak over state networks for three minutes, with Stevenson returning to close the broadcast. In other states the Stevenson talks went right on through, however.

Stevenson said, "The Democratic party believes in the development of our national resources for the benefit of all of us, not a few of us. . . . That is why the Democratic party has fought so hard for social security, adequate housing, education, a living wage, and the amenities of life for workers and farmers."

"Socialism? No, rather in Golden Rule—or the concept of government."

State Asks Ouster Of Manning From Sheppard Trial

CLEVELAND (P)—The state Monday asked that James R. Manning be thrown off the jury sworn to try Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard for the slaying of his wife. It said Manning failed to reveal a crime in his past.

The defense immediately lodged a challenge — not an objection — and said it wanted proof that Manning was a sex offender 11 years ago at the age of 27.

With the defense prepared to go all out on the legal issue, the trial was recessed over Election Day until Wednesday.

Defense Attorney William J. Corrigan said he did not think Manning could rightfully be unseated, but refused to say whether he would press for a mistrial if he is.

Corrigan didn't say he wouldn't, however.

A mistrial would hold things up for weeks and require the drawing of a whole new jury panel.

Sheppard, 30-year-old osteopath, is accused of beating his wife, Marilyn, 31, to death last July 4. Two alternate jurors were seated during the first day of the trial's third week.

The first, Jack H. Hansen, a powerfully built foreman for a tractor firm, is in line for Manning's seat if the latter is ousted.

The second and final alternate was Mrs. Lois F. Mancini, a dark and pretty housewife, mother of two small daughters.

In the absence of the jury in mid-afternoon, Asst. Prosecutor John J. Mahon arose and asked of Bythin that Manning be disqualified and discharged from the jury.

Mahon told the court Manning was charged Nov. 5, 1943, with unlawfully occupying an auto for purposes of lewdness. A 1

Madness In The Spring

Copyright 1954 by Elinore Denniston. Distributed by NEA Service, Inc.

THE STORY: Greg Seaver, 26, has left a relatively secure job working for his stepfather, the vigorous, domineering, Horner Craig, to work as a chauffeur for Wade Daggett, a wealthy invalid. Daggett has bought a trailer and they will just start out and search for adventure. Daggett and Greg both confess that what they seek is hard to explain in words. It's like "the other side of the moon." It is early spring, and souls are restless.

ON week-ends Greg had mastered the trailer's technique, learned how to couple and uncouple it, how to hoist it up in trailer parks and how to make the power and water attachments. Now he set out to drive worry with the portable house rocking behind.

There was a pane-stricken moment when he wondered how he had got himself into a mess like this. He was headed into the unknown. He did not know what would happen if the old man had a heart attack; he did not know a single human being who would approve of what he was doing. Surely he was aware that he was not one of the rare people who can stand alone in their opinions, but that, like the majority, he required lots of company.

And spring came down the road to meet them, delicate in green. They left Long Island and rolled into Connecticut. Greg drove slowly. There was no hurry, no goal, only the shining moment. Only now.

Daggett's mind was following companionably along the same path for he asked, "Ever read the letters between Justice Holmes and Sir Frederick Pollock?"

Greg shook his head without taking his eyes off the road. "Holmes wrote Pollock about having discovered for himself one of the great platitudes, that most of life is spent in keeping alive."

After lights were out, Greg fell asleep, and Daggett, whose sleep was a thing of fits and snatches, caught at as he could, lay awake with his thoughts.

He lay looking into the dark. Ever since he had been stricken with paralysis he had lived the dark. It was a comfortable garment to conceal his deformity. The boy did not seem to mind his disfigurement. Daggett had watched for that every light blazing when Greg made his first appearance. If the younger man revealed shock or disgust it would be no use. You could hire an attendant but you could not hire companionship.

He had tried them all, indignant relatives and paid employees. They had given him nothing that he had not paid for. Until the interval when he had married

15,000 Expected To Cast Votes Today In Morgan Election

More than 15,000 Morgan county citizens are expected to cast votes in the election Tuesday when a number of state, district, and county officials will be chosen. The size of the Morgan county turnout at the polls will depend on how much interest the "off-year" contests have generated.

In 1950, the last "off-year" election, 14,647 voters visited the polls.

Two years later in the presidential election the number voting jumped to 17,248.

Bishop H. Clifford Northcott, Madison, Wis., and Archibald J. Carey, Jr., Chicago, headline the afternoon and evening program of the Methodist Illinois Conference. The meeting to be held in Wesley Methodist church, Bloomington on Tuesday, Nov. 15, will be attended by pastors and laymen representing 726 Methodist churches in central Illinois.

The Reverend Dale E. Pitcher, pastor of the Pittsfield church, and chairman of the Conference Board, will chairmen the meeting.

Others on the program are Reverend Robert Swain, Virden; Dr. W. W. Cutlip, Moline; and the District Superintendent, Dr. Walter F. Day, Bloomington; Dr. Leland L. Lawrence, Champaign; Dr. Preston E. Horst, Decatur; Dr. Charles B. Wagner, Galesburg; Dr. Eugene N. Roberts, Jacksonville; Dr. Victor N. Wisely, Peoria; and Dr. Raye Ragan, Springfield.

RED SECRETARY LOSES APPEAL
CHICAGO (AP)—Claude M. Lightfoot, 44-year-old Negro executive secretary of the Illinois Communist party, today lost a plea for dismissal of subversion charges against him.

U.S. Dist. Judge Philip L. Sullivan in a 15-page memorandum ruled that Lightfoot's constitutional rights to freedom of speech, belief and assembly would not be denied by trial under the Smith Act which makes plotting to overthrow the government a crime.

No trial date was set immediately.

County Judge Speaks To Federated Clubs

Fifty members of the Morgan County Federation of Woman's Clubs met at the YMCA Youth Center on West State street for the fall session. The guest speaker was Judge Paul Fenstermaker who told the group about the Illinois Youth Commission, its work and purposes, which proved most interesting.

The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Louis Werries and the women joined Mrs. Howard Deltrick in the pledge to the flag. Miss Charlotte Sieber, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Sieber, led in the singing of "America the Beautiful." Devotions were offered by Mrs. Earl J. Meyers who read the 104th Psalm, Book of Praises, closing with prayer.

Mrs. Werries presented Mrs. W. G. Burrismer of Mason City, president of the 20th district, who spoke on "Federation and Federation Ideals."

Mrs. John Pine of Bluffs, first vice president of the federated clubs, brought greetings. Mrs. H. J. Satorius, corresponding secretary, expressed her pleasure in being present for the meeting.

The secretary's report was given by Mrs. Carroll Houston. Mrs. George Robinson gave the treasurer's report. Dues for the Morgan County Federation should be paid to Mrs. Robinson.

Roll call was answered by members of the federated clubs standing. Former Morgan County presidents in attendance were Mrs. Roy Davidson, Miss Olive Burnett, Mrs.

86 Year Old Pike County Resident Dies At Detroit

WINCHESTER — The death of Frank Lindsay, 86 year old retired farmer, occurred at 6:30 o'clock Sunday evening at his home in Detroit, Pike county. He was a native of Brown county, born May 29, 1868, but most of his life was spent in Pike county.

His wife, Mrs. Margaret Agnes Lindsay, died in September, 1952.

Surviving children are Mrs. Emmett Dooley, Detroit, Ill.; Mrs. George Kemper, Winchester; Mrs. Woodrow Springer, Bluffs; Lindsay Lindsay, Detroit; and George Lindsay, Winchester. There are 18 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

Three children preceded Mr. Lindsay in death.

The body is at the Cunningham Funeral Home in Winchester, where the Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

Funeral services will be held at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning at St. Mary's church in Pittsfield, with interment in Calvary cemetery at Pittsfield.

William Eastridge Dies Suddenly Monday Morning

William W. Eastridge, 77 who has resided at 369 Webster avenue for the past fifteen years, died suddenly Monday morning at his residence. He was the son of Barabas and Betsy Payne Eastridge, and was born in Mountain City, Tenn. on June 2, 1877. He married Sarah Prather who preceded him in death 27 years ago.

Eastridge was formerly a farmer. He is survived by three children, Mrs. Ida Dodd, Springfield, Mrs. Mae Crow, Johnson City, Tenn. and Dana Eastridge, Springfield, six grandchildren and two great grandchildren. One sister preceded him in death.

Funeral services will be held at the Williamson Funeral home Wednesday at 1 p.m. with the Rev. W. J. Boston officiating. Burial will be in the Jacksonville East cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home tonight between 7:30 and 9 p.m.

Mitchell Charges COP Distributed 'Malicious Fakery'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democratic Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell accused the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee Monday night of distributing a piece of "malicious fakery"—a spot radio announcement which he said tells listeners that Moscow "orders" the defeat of Republican candidates.

Calling it a "100 per cent falsehood passed off as an actual recording of events," Mitchell said he would demand that Congress and the Federal Communications Commission investigate.

He also said he would have lawyers look into the possibility of legal action against stations which have carried "these fake dramatizations."

A spokesman for the Republican Congressional Committee said there would be no immediate comment on Mitchell's remarks. The spokesman said the recordings had been sent to individual Republican House and Senate candidates for use in their respective districts as they saw fit. The committee was set up to help Republican candidates in their campaigns.

France Cedes Last Settlement Back To New Delhi
PONDICHERY, India (AP)—Four small French Indian settlements were handed over to the New Delhi government Monday, ending France's 300-year-old foothold in this country.

Artillery salutes boomed across the Bay of Bengal as the French tricolor was lowered in Pondicherry, long the capital of French India, and the Indian flag was raised. Legal transfer of the territory after seven years of dickering between New Delhi and Paris was achieved by the signing of official documents here in Government House.

At the same time, de facto transfer was made to India of three other French settlements—Karikal, Yanam, and Mahe. All the settlements ceded are on India's east coast except Mahe, on the west coast.

In 1947, just after India won independence from Britain, France handed over to the New Delhi government several other small plots of land that once were trading posts. Chandernagore, near Calcutta, voted in 1949 to join India and a treaty for this transfer was approved by the French in 1952.

Louisiana's cane sugar industry produces about 400,000 tons of sugar a year.

Local Election Results On WLDS Today

Complete election returns for the Jacksonville area will be carried Tuesday evening on station WLDS-FM, according to T. J. Fairburn, program director. First returns will be aired as soon as available, and cumulative totals will be broadcast at regular intervals throughout the evening up to midnight or as soon as local returns are fairly conclusive.

Local returns will be carried direct from the studio at the Journal Courier. Walter Deshara and Karl Baker will report the local returns from this point. At the WLDS studio, newscaster Ted Fairburn, Gerald Cassens and Bud Halter will report regional and national returns. Standing by to assist tabulation of reports will be Barney Lewis and Marie Barton.

WLDS has made arrangements to receive returns from Quincy and Springfield as they are available and will report these as they receive them.

Two Big Diggers On Route Of Pipe Line

With another back hoe digger in operation south and east of Chapin, work on the Jacksonville water transmission line between this city and the Illinois river is progressing on schedule, according to announcement Monday by Cassler & Stapleton, engineers on the huge project.

With two back hoe diggers and crews working at two separate places, between 500 and 600 feet of prestressed concrete pipe is being placed in the ground daily by each outfit, making a total of approximately 1200 feet.

The outfit working north of Neelyville has moved onto the Rabe farm near the Morgan-Scott county line.

Work by a 40 ton back hoe digger was started the latter part of last week on the Mra Perib farm south of the Walash railroad at the edge of Chapin. The crew will move onto the Walter Bobbitt farm and thence eastward to the Arthur French farm.

The Prestressed Concrete Pipe company has a fleet of trucks moving material to both projects and with favorable weather the pipeline laying will progress steadily.

As soon as the heavy pipe is loaded to the pipeline area north of Bluffs the Tonson Construction company, which has the contract for laying the pipe, expects to have another large digger in operation on that section of the 23 mile pipeline.

Work on the deep well north of Naples is progressing satisfactorily. Several feet of the large well casing has been put into place. This casing has a diameter of about 13 feet and will be about 90 feet deep.

$111 Collected For UNICEF By Winchester Kids

WINCHESTER—Mrs. Roy Goodell and Mrs. C. R. W. Frost, co-chairmen of the local UNICEF (United Nations Children's Fund) Drive have announced that a total of $111.00 was received Halloween night in the Winchester UNICEF Drive, in which seventy school children from grades 5, 6, 7 and 8 participated. This fund will be used to improve the living conditions of underprivileged children in many countries. For example this amount collected in Winchester will be enough to give 999 hungry children milk every day for a week.

Last year the total UNICEF program reached more than twenty million children with food, medicine and health education.

Returning to the Baptist church following the solicitation the children were treated to doughnuts and soda pop.

Appointed Head of Store
John McCabe, son of Mr. and Mrs. James McCabe, has been named manager of the new Self-Service Kresge Store at Oaklawn, Chicago, Illinois. This comes as an outstanding promotion since this is the first Self-Service Kresge Store to be opened in the United States, and promises to be the company's future plan of serving the public. McCabe has been with the Kresge Company for a number of years and was manager of their store on Washington avenue in St. Louis prior to this transfer.

C.W.F. To Meet
The general November meeting of the C.W.F. of the Winchester Christian church will be held at the church Wednesday evening, Nov. 3, at 7:30, with Mrs. Lawrence Gillham in charge of the program and Mr. Clement Thomas will lead devotions.

To Hold Family Night
Wednesday, November 3, will be family night at the First Baptist church in Winchester. Following a potluck supper at 6:30, a program will be given consisting of choir music and a movie concerning the Scandinavian countries.

Class Has Annual Banquet
Fifty-seven members of the Room for you Class of the Baptist church were guests of their teacher, Mrs. C. R. W. Frost at the annual birthday banquet Friday evening at the church. This marked the seventh year for the class which began with five members and now has a total of 80.

Rev. Arthur Daniels of Quincy was speaker. He talked of the possibilities that such a young couples class presents, and the courage that they need and must show to further the principles of Christian family living. He was introduced by Rev. John Scott.

Rev. William Sealock led in group singing. Rev. Worrell conducted the business meeting. It was planned by the members to help with the remodeling of the church parsonage, the trustees having agreed to furnish the materials, the class members the labor. The meeting was turned over to the new president, George Lashmet.

Preceding the dinner, which was served by the ladies of Mrs. Ralph Peak's Circle, boxes of cookies were packed for ten service men of the class. The committee included Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pokrinski, Mr. and Mrs. George Peak, Mr. and Mrs. George Lashmet, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Boehm, and Miss Nina Lee Young.

Personals
Mr. and Mrs. John Mosely entertained at a Halloween party in honor of the twelfth birthday of their son, Mac, on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Ray Cherry celebrated the eighth birthday of her son, David, with a party for a group of boys on Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Paul of Springfield were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Ruark.

Mrs. Nell Kelly entered Passavant hospital as a patient last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pape are visiting in Winchester for several days.

HUNTER'S BIG STORY TOPS FISH TALES

FRANKLIN, Pa. (AP)—You fishermen, who tell tall tales, will have to go some to beat this:

Teen-ager Robert Elliott returned home from a hunting trip Sunday with this story.

He fired at a rabbit in the bush, dropping the rabbit in its tracks. The shot flushed out a pheasant which dove straight at startled Robert. The pheasant hit the barrel of Robert's shotgun and dropped dead at his feet.

Young Robert had a pheasant and a rabbit to prove his story and there wasn't a bullet wound in the pheasant, either.

Council Pays $300,000 Of Pipe Line Costs In Brief Regular Session

It took the Jacksonville city council just an hour and a half to spend nearly $300,000 as it met in regular session last night in City Hall.

Fifteen resolutions directing payment of pipe line construction costs to date were passed by unanimous vote. The various invoices totaled $299,081.88, and break down as follows:

$7,970.91—transfer of accrued interest into special fund.
$23,595.39—reimbursement to the Water Department special fund for costs of the original surveys on the project, etc.

$1,842.59—reimbursement to the city general fund for expenses of the special election required to approve the bond issue.

$348.91—payments for various advertising expenses incurred in publicizing the project and requesting bids.

$250 to the J. P. Miller Artesian Well Co. for testing the Capps well.
$585 to the Morgan and Scott county abstract companies for certification of titles in connection with right-of-way agreements.

Mile And A Half In
Engineer Kenneth Stapleton reported that 7,400 feet—nearly a mile and a half—of pipe has now been laid.

The councilmen unanimously accepted a permit from the village of South Jacksonville allowing the use of needed areas on the south side of East Michigan avenue for storage of excavated material and pipe while the water supply line is being laid into the city.

A resolution directing that South Mauvasterre street be opened to two-way traffic between Beecher and College avenues was approved by an 8-to-1 vote. Alderman Chumley dissenting. Parking will no longer be permitted on the east side of the street in this section.

The street department was given permission to purchase one carload of salt for the winter's street cleaning.

A resolution directing the transfer of $85,440 to special assessment account 256 in payment of installments two through seven of the cost of the West Morgan-South Fayette streets paving improvement project passed by unanimous vote. The first installment of $15,444.60 was paid earlier from the city's share of motor fuel tax funds, and the amount paid last night was also granted by the state from fuel tax receipts.

Code Clarified
An ordinance clarifying certain sections of the city plumbing code was passed by unanimous vote upon second reading.

The October report of building inspector Clarence Wooten showed 33 building permits and one certificate of occupancy issued during the month, with a total of $306 collected. Four permits were withdrawn and the fees refunded, and one application was rejected.

Police Magistrate Russell J. Alvarez reported 109 cases during the month of October, and collection of $680 in fines. Of this amount, $594 was paid into the city general fund and $66 into the police pension fund.

Alderman Allen reported that two pumps in the south side sewage disposal plant broke down during the week and are completely worn out. No action was recommended.

Alderman Kelly reported Lake Jacksonville at a level of 14 feet 10 inches below the spillway, a gain of 34 inch since last week.

The police department was instructed to look into the matter of the apparently abandoned revival-meeting tent on South Church street. Several residents of the area have complained that the tent is an eyesore and a danger to playing children, alderman reported.

All aldermen and the mayor were present at the brief meeting.

DECLARES WAR ON PAPERWORK
HEIDELBERG, Germany (AP)—Gen. William M. Hoge, U. S. Army chief in Europe, Monday night declared war on paper work.

Hoge's "Operation Paperchase" proposes to "reduce our volume of paper work that we may be freed from its staggering burden and thereby be better able to perform our primary military role."

2 Youths Found Dead In Truck; Motor Running
RUSHVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Two 17-year old youths were found dead early Monday in a truck parked by the motor running in a garage.

The bodies of James L. Avery and Silas Johnson were found about 3 a.m. by Mrs. Andrew Avery, a relative of James. She had come for the truck after the family car broke down.

Authorities said the youths, apparently killed by asphyxiation, had intended to spend Sunday night with the Andrew Averages, unexpectedly found the houselocked and got into the truck and started the engine to keep warm.

James was a half brother of Andrew Avery. He and Silas resided on farms west of Rushville. Dr. L. C. Sutherland, Schuyler County coroner, said an inquest would be held.
